Faela! „Camina“

Latin-Balkan-Flamenco-Reggae-Swing-Festa from Sweden

Camina is the second album by the band Faela! which is released on flowfish.records (the debut album, which was originally self-released, has already been put out on flowfish.records in July 2011). „Baila nina baila!“ („Dance girl dance!“) sing Faela! and make the audience dance at their Swedish-Festa. Latin rhythms, Balkan melodies, Reggae beats, Flamenco, Rock'n'Roll and Swing all meet in their songs which tell stories about very special people and locations. These stories find their very particular expression in Spanish, Portuguese, Swedish, English and „Mowish“, a self-invented nonsense language. Most of the compositions and stories come from frontman Hugo Coronel, but it is the manifold influences of all band members that add up to the unmistakable Faela! sound of the quite diverse songs. The 8 musicians, all of whom are excellent soloists and nearly all of whom are also acrobats, are from Argentina, Sweden, Chile and Bosnia. They enrich the band not only with their eventful life stories but also with a diverse range of musical preferences. What unites them is the effervescent passion for playing good music, of which each of the 10 songs on Camina are telling – be it ballads like „Rosa“ or „Franca“, party tracks like „Kamel“ or „Outro EU“, or the relaxed reggae track „Ryggel“, in which singer Ayla Adams voices the main part. Formed in 2006 in the cosmopolitan city Malmö (Sweden), Faela! have very successfully been touring festivals all over Europe for the past 5 years. The Faela!-Festa is celebrated on big stages, like for example at the Fusion or MASALA World-Beat Festival, just as much as on the many street festivals at which they are regularly elected as the audience's favourite. Faela! have taken the hearts of their live audiences by storm, and we are now happy to release their CDs all over Europe and to be able to celebrate their Faela-Festa with ever more people!
